

GEODESIS Home Fragrance launches at John Lewis

Sarah Keady, Wednesday 31 August 2011

GEODESIS Home Fragrance has now launched in John Lewis stores nationwide.

The luxury brand, which was founded 14 years ago, was born from the idea of associating a fragrance with a region of the world. The fragrance aims to deliver the experience of distant destinations to your home, making it the perfect buy to banish those post-holiday blues.

Each infusion is available in a selected choice of Scented Candle, Ambience Reed Diffuser and Room Spray, as well as Perfumed Oils and accessories from £20. Choose from the refreshing floral scents of freesia and Tuberose or sweet fruity fragrances of Fig Tree and Blackcurrant, available from JohnLewis.com.
